FOR THE GOOD OF THE ORDER

by Chris Frame, PGK

Pope St Pius V Feast Day 4/30/2010

"O God who didst choose Blessed Pius V as supreme Pontiff in order to shatter the enemies of Thy Church and to restore the purity of the Sacred Liturgy; grant us his protection so that cleaving to Thy service we may overcome the snares of all our enemies and enjoy perpetual peace. Through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen. St. Pius V pray for us, protect the Roman Liturgy."

We say this prayer at the end of every meeting but do we really understand what the prayer means and what we are asking?

Perhaps it would be a good opportunity to look at two specific events during the reign of Pope Pius V that were significant: the codifying and standardization of the Roman Liturgy also referred to as the Tridentine Rite but commonly known to us as the Latin Mass and the Battle of Lepanto, which stemmed Ottoman expansion in the Mediterranean and prevented their influence from spreading west.

Here are a couple of links to get you started.

<http://militaryhistory.about.com/od/navalbattles14011600/p/lepanto.htm>

<http://www.holytrinitygerman.org/tridrite.html>

"In his personal life and in his actions as pope, Pius V both led the family of God in the process of interiorizing and implementing the new birth called for by the Spirit in major Councils. With zeal and patience, Pius pursued the changes urged by the Council Fathers. Like Pius we too are called to constant change of heart and life."

It is appropriate during this time of transition to new leadership in our Council to remind ourselves of our "Back to Basics" motto and reflect on the Pope who laid the frame work through his formal papal document, Quo Primum, (http://www.stpiusvshrine.org/resource/stpius/quo_primum.htm) to rediscover and get back to our Catholic roots.

We are also called to continue the work of Council One founded by Blessed Father Michael J. McGivney, who called us to move inward toward God and outward to society through service to those in need. In our own Council we accomplish this by following our Mission Statement which calls us to focus on:

1. Programs of Marian and Eucharistic Adoration.
2. Promote family life and priestly vocations.
3. Works of charity.

ONE YEAR AS A GRAND KNIGHT

By Joseph Seago, Grand (and soon to be Past) Knight

The Knights of Columbus is a noble and powerful Catholic fraternity. Three main principals govern our order and makes use strong and productive Catholic men. They are charity, unity, and fraternity. The next time you are in the narthex find our council's charter hanging on the wall. Look at it closely; see how many names are on the charter. Not one but over forty names. One man cannot start a council. It takes the unity of many men with the same goal to successfully start and develop a council.

Charity is the first principle lerned by a new Knight of Columbus. Charity starts in the council. The lesson of charity showed us to help our fellow knights and to be with them in their hour of need. Our council has given a helping hand to many members and their families over the years.

Unity is the second principle in our order. The lessons of unity teach us that as an individual we are weak and sometimes unsuccessful. However, together as a whole, our council is strong and can accomplish great things. Unity teaches us that one can be strong, but as a fraternity we can be stronger and even powerful.

The third principal is fraternity. As members of the Knights of Columbus we are called to support each other and our elected officers. More importantly, we are called to defend and support our priests, bishops, and our Pope. As Knights of Columbus we are called to assist the families of our fallen brothers.

I want to challenge all third degree members of our council to attend at least one first degree, second degree, and a third degree before the end of this year. Likewise all second degree should attend a first and second degree. I also want to encourage all first degree brothers to make your second and third degree. Each time I go to a degree I learn something new or remember something I had forgotten.

Being a Grand Knight has helped me oversee all these principals in a leadership point of view. This point of view has taught me to see the principals that Father McGiveny founded hundreds of years ago. By losing this focus, a person can go towards a wrongful path; a path of materialistic views and that is not what the Knights are about. We are about love, fraternity, and thoughtful towards other Catholic brothers and sisters.

As a the departing Grand Knight, I want to say that it was an honor and privilege to serve this Council. We can all agree to disagree that we had are ups and downs, but in the end I know that we persevered the principals of the Council to the fullest. I want to thank the officers and committee members that worked hard with me in this year. I would not hesitate to do this again, but I would LOVE to see any of my fellow brothers take upon this task as a Grand Knight and do what I have done and even more in this past year. Do not hesitate to contact me on any questions or suggestions you may have on being a successful leader in the Council.

Six Great Reasons To Insure Your Children

1. Protect Their Insurability: With a Guaranteed Purchase Option (GPO) rider attached, Knights of Columbus plans guarantee your child the opportunity to purchase more protection at various dates in their future without proving insurability.

2. Protect Your Finances: When we lose a loved one, especially a child, the financial loss is often not just the cost of a funeral. A policy on a child can help to supplement income while loved ones deal with this devastating loss and financial stress.

3. Lock in Lower Rates: The rates will never be any better than they are right now. Plus, if you consider the amount of coverage that your children will likely need given inflation, a juvenile policy could literally save them thousands of dollars.

4. Encourage Saving: Knights of Columbus plans offer terrific cash accumulation values to help supplement cost of likely future expenses, such as the purchase of a home, a wedding, or help offset college costs.

5. Create a Legacy: The plan is also in place to protect your child's future family — your grandkids!

Life insurance for your child is truly a lasting gift.

It can become one of their most cherished assets.

6. Qualify for Orphan Benefit: If the father is in good standing with his local council and at least one of the parents is insured with the Knights, each insured child would receive a monthly benefit of $80 to age 19 (age 23 if they attend college) if both parents were to die.
