

Chaplain's Report
K of C Council 14041
27 October 2011

The Supreme Chaplain had no report for October. The Columbia magazine dealt entirely with the August Supreme Convention in Denver. A couple of our members attended and have reported on that. Since I was on retreat this month, I thought I would encourage my brother Knights to make a retreat at Our Lady Queen of Peace retreat center either November 4-6, or some other weekend in 2011-2012. Whether as men or married couples, time away with the Lord in a beautiful setting like Our Lady Queen of Peace is a wonderful way to recharge our "spiritual batteries" and renew our baptismal commitment to the Lord and His Church. Please give it your prayerful consideration. If you have any questions, please contact me or Dennis Bockhold.

Remember we gather as part of the Communion of Saints November 1, the Feast of All Saints at 8:00 a.m. or 7:00 p.m. On November 2, the Feast of All souls, we remember all our beloved dead in prayers. Mass at Nativity is at 8:00 a.m. There is Mass with the Bishop at 10:00 a.m. at Calvary Cemetery. Check with other churches for their Mass times.

God bless!

Fraternally,
